Q JUMPERS

Get Set: What's it about?

Get Set is an NZQA approved short award aimed at getting Kiwis to understand what employers value in an employee, guide employment choices as well as provide participants with a life long record of ability (QPASS CV) and links to potential employers.

Get Set: What's in it?

This short award delivers comprehensive content that ensures the learner comes away with a greater understanding of the workforce and how to succeed in it.

Topics include:

- Understanding New Zealand employers
- Listening skills and handling conflict
- Written and verbal communication skills
- Motivation skills
- Learning and working styles
- Personality and profiling – career fit
- Problem solving and decision making tools
- QPASS CV development
- Research project
- Interviews

Successful completion will result in the learner gaining a local certificate equivalent to eight level 3 NZQA credits.

Delivering Get Set

The Get Set short award offers flexible delivery and assessment options:

- Integrate into your current curriculum
- Fully self-directed study or,
- A mix of self directed and curriculum based study
- Use QualMaster to provide materials and assessments or,
- Your organisation completes the assessments (assessor training required)

Incorporate a marketable point of difference into your courses, improve student numbers and improve outcomes.

What's more, the cost of delivering the short award is less than the allocated funding value.
